Dear Friends,

With so many wonderful things going on to help bring light and transformation into our lives, we are most enthusiastic about our upcoming magical mysteries service tour to Egypt.

For those of you who are not familiar with Indigo Rønlov, my co-leader on this trip, she is part of the Thoth lineage and a teacher of Alchemical Healing, amongst many other deep and varied credentials. She is currently working on her Masters in Ecopsychology at Naropa University, and is combining her studies and thesis with a service project in Egypt that we are adding to our tour. Indigo has a great passion for Egypt, her people and the dire ecological problems that exist there as it reflects a worldwide pandemic of disrespect for our environment. Obviously, with a full tour schedule (we don't wish to take away from the deep spiritual alchemy for which our trip is intended), those who join us will need to have their own special commitment to helping with our service project, thus affording an opportunity to interact with Egyptians and especially, the children of Egypt. Indigo describes her plans in further detail in her own letter below.

I am particularly excited about the quality of people who have shown interest and signed up so far. Please let us know right away if you are interested in this tour as it will fill quite quickly.

Blessings and Magic,
~Nicki

A Letter from Indigo

Greetings Intrepid Travelers!

From the start, I want to extend my deep gratitude for your interest in joining this upcoming Egyptian Mysteries & Service Journey. The act of being in service to something greater than oneself opens a pathway from our head to our heart in beautiful and profound ways. This potent tour will bring us, the participants, through our individual alchemy into a planetary alchemy, allowing us to focus on the healing of this precious world from which we all come and depend. We will do this through the joining of the Egyptian mysteries with our service and direct action as we travel through Egypt along the Nile. [Read the rest of Indigo's letter here...]

Planetary Healing Call to Action

Monday, October 28 5:30 - 7:00pm/Pacific

This free Planetary Healing Call to Action has a double purpose. By giving the Caduceus initiation and practice from Alchemical Healing, participants will discover a whole new arena for the energy, clarity of vision, connection to Cobra as the Great Awakeners, and most importantly, the introduction Thoth, the god of wisdom, communications, language, healing, science and more. He is the scribe of the gods and the mediator when things go astray. He is also my teacher and mentor, and the architect behind all of my personal, planetary and Egyptian mysteries work.

I am offering this as a Call to Action because it confers both the power and balance with which we need to walk in this ever changing global transition time. I will also include an Alchemical Healing demonstration so that you can begin to recognize and use this most extraordinary healing practice.

Animal Totems and Other Spirit Allies

Part I Monday, November 4 at 5:30pm - 7:00pm Pacific

Part II Thursday, November 7 at 5:30pm - 7:00pm Pacific

Part I

We have neither the only, nor the highest, intelligence on this planet. Once we tune into the intelligence of all aspects of nature we have at our heart's request all the help we need for many of the diseases and challenges that face us. This first part will include a journey to meet those allies that wish to work with us at this time. They are likely to show us many surprising and unexpected qualities and gifts that you can use to help yourself and others.

Part II

This class will take us deeper into the journeying process to strengthen our relationships, learn how to develop new ones that have the gifts required in the moment and practice using these relationships to heal ourselves and one another.

Elements

Part I Monday, November 11 at 5:30pm - 7:00pm Pacific

Part II Thursday, November 14 at 5:30pm - 7:00pm Pacific

Part I

Most traditions, both indigenous and modern, use some sort of elemental system in their work. Some simply honor the basic elements from which we are all created while others, such as Chinese acupuncturists, have a long standing ancient tradition of using the elements in healing. The Alchemical Healing elemental system is more aligned with that of the Western magical, or hermetic (Thoth) tradition and is unique in its expression. Initiation into this elemental form will not destruct or be in dissonance with any other form you might have encountered. It will simply add a unique access to the five elements: Earth, Water, Fire, Air, and Akasha. During Part I your hands and fingertips will be wired, or re-wired, so that direct connection is made with the source realms of each element. There will be practices to give you greater understanding of their power and utility. You will meet and work with the denizens of each realm.

Part II

In this final class we will practice the healing powers of the elements and develop our perception of them in nature and the totemic world. This is helpful to know more precisely what is called for in every unique situation and challenge. There are a number of exercises we can do with one another to deepen our understanding of the healing power and spiritual dynamics of the elements. Although you will be initiated to all five elements, we will be working primarily with Earth, Water, Fire and Air. Akasha is more advanced and will require its own class for which these classes will be prerequisite.

The texts for these classes include Power Animal Meditations and Alchemical Healing, which are part of my trilogy that completes with Planetary Healing: Spirit Medicine for Global Transformation. I highly recommend that if you don't already have a copy of the first two you purchase them before the class. It will definitely deepen your experience. If you choose to purchase the trilogy I will give you a 25% discount.

There is a special offer online of 30% for any four of Inner Traditions, Bear & Co. books at Hathors Mirror, which is where you will register for these classes.
